ANNOUNCE ITS

63RD ANNUAL CONGRESS/CONFERENCE

Sunday, October 7 - Thursday 11, 2018

THEME: THE MILITARY FACTOR IN NIGERIAN HISTORY SINCE 1960

Arguably, the military has remained one of the most enduring institutions in the history of Nigeria. Apart from being a critical factor in the processes that birthed the nation, it has continued to play a role in her continued existence. While this is a fact, it is also true that the military shares in the pathologies of the country and indeed is a major variable in the nation-building challenges confronting Nigeria and its peoples. Against the backdrop of these conflating and contrasting perspectives on the military factor in the evolution of Nigerian nation, it is important to take a closer and critical look at this institution and the issues it throws up as well as their implications on the question of enduring nationhood. As part of this endeavor, scholars are encouraged to send abstracts on the following themes:

SUB THEMES:

- Theoretical and Conceptual issues on the Military Factor in Nigerian History
- Historical Perspectives on the Military in the emergence and development of Nigeria
- The Military and the Challenges of Nation-Building
- Governance, Civil Society and the Military
- Security, Development and the Military
- The Military in the Socio-Economic Development of Nigeria
